

Columbia County
Libraries Come to the Fair!

The 11 Columbia County Librarians had a booth at the Columbia County Fair. There were book marks with all 11 libraries's contact information, including all the services available to patrons through the use of a library card. Also Dr. Seuss tattoos, I Love the Library balloons, pencils, trivia questions and free books. All libraries took turns manning the booth. Livingston Free Library was there on Thursday from 9:30am to 3:30pm
