

Highlights of 2017 Programs and Changes:

Community Art Show in the Library

Patrons age 7 years old and up designed paint, pencil and fabric creations in the winter to display.

March: The Benefits of Massage Therapy, Aromatherapy & Reflexology

April: Ergonomic Gardening: How to Garden and Not Hurt Yourself

May: Sue Critchell, after several years as a Library Trustee and 11 years as Director, retired. Wendy Tremper Wollerton, who had worked as a library clerk for 12 years became the Director. Karen Fetty also joined the library as the newest Trustee.

June: Restoration Efforts of Historic Landmark, the Eleanor sloop

July & August: Summer Reading Program offered both at the library and through the Summer Camp at the Recreation Park in Livingston. Lego designs were made by several children and critiqued by local artist Bob Crimi. Livingston Free Library visited the Columbia County Fair as part of the Columbia County Library Association 11 library display.

Karen Fetty & Wendy T. Wollerton at the Fair

