Yvonne Laube, the Public Information Officer of the Poughkeepsie Library District will give an introduction on how to use our new website feature, Recite Me. Yvonne will show you how to change text to speech, where the dyslexia help is located, the interactive dictionary location and point out the translation tool for over 100 languages. Q & A will be available to answer your questions.

At the Poughkeepsie Public Library, Yvonne manages their website, social media, digital library and video production. Yvonne has a BA in Graphic Arts from SUNY Empire State and uses her skills to create printed and digital materials to help promote the Poughkeepsie Library District's many programs and services.

This program is made possible by generous support from Hudson River Bank and Trust Foundation
