

Nature & American Art

New York Historical Society
Wednesday, December 15th at 6 PM

To register email:
Livingstonlibprograms@gmail.com

Experience the natural beauty of the United States through the eyes of the artist. Discover how an evolving understanding of science and emergence of early conservation movements shaped the 19th century work of naturalist John James Audubon and the landscape painters of the Hudson River School.

Columbia County
Libraries Association

Sponsor of this online program